When you are going to be away, just tell your friends and neighbors, fuel dealer, patrolling officer or anyone else who may pass by your house so they can take action if they see the Freeze Warn signal flashing. Your fuel dealer, caretaker or neighbor can then be notified immediately. Be sure they have means of access in case of need.

Freeze Warning Light Turns ON @ 42°F / 6°C

- Automatically resets at 52°F
- Accuracy +/- 2-3°F or 1-2°C
- 14 foot Sensor extension cord with power adapter included

Here's why the unique Freeze Warn Signal System has been preferred for 40 years:

- A complete, self-contained, self-powered signal system. Nothing more to add.
- AC/DC powered.
- Clear powerful flashers alert friends, neighbors or caretaker to possible danger.
- Simple to understand, test and use. No installation required.
- The choice of real estate professionals; ski, vacation and weekend home owners; farmers; fuel dealers and more...
- Reliable, low-cost protection against the worry of burst water pipes if your heating system should fail while your away.

Preparing Signal for Use:

- 1) Insert AC/DC plug into Freeze Warn light's respective jack. Plug AC/DC adapter into wall outlet.
- 2) Uncoil 14' cord with disc thermostat attached.
- 3) Place Freeze Warn disc thermostat as close as possible to regular house thermostat or middle of room. Place signal light in window or other location where it is sure to be seen.
- 4) Set home/location thermostat to 55°F degrees. (Note: thermo-switch sensor activates at 42°F and has +/- 2-3°F accuracy)
- 5) Make sure to Test (see below) Unit is now set for Freeze Warn service.

Testing the Freeze Warn Signal Check operating condition, particularly at start of the heating season. Always assure yourself that the system is functioning properly before you rely on it. After plugging in the power adapter into the wall and light respectively near your freezer, place the Freeze Warn thermostat inside your freezer, wait approximately 30 minutes. The light and buzzer will activate.
